BACKGROUND

WHAT IS A CREDIT UNION?

A credit union is “a cooperative, nonprofit association, incorporated...for the purposes of encouraging thrift among its members, creating a source of credit at a fair and reasonable rate of interest, and providing an opportunity for its members to use and control their own money in order to improve their economic and social condition.” N.C. General Statutes §54-109.1(1993)

Credit unions differ from other depository financial institutions in a number of respects. First, credit unions are nonprofit with most of the net income earned returned to members in the form of higher dividends and lower interest rates on loans. Second, credit union members share one or more common bonds of occupation, association, community or interest, referred to as a “field of membership.” Third, credit unions are democratically controlled institutions firmly grounded on the principle of “one member, one vote.” And fourth, credit unions rely on volunteerism. Credit union directors are unpaid volunteers.

NORTH CAROLINA CREDIT UNION DIVISION

The North Carolina Credit Union Division, a regulatory agency, was created in 1915. The Division is funded exclusively from fees paid by the regulated credit unions. The Division was accredited by the National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors (NASCUS) in 1992 and continues to maintain this high standard of excellence in the regulation and supervision of credit unions.

AGENCY MISSION

To advocate and assist in the formation of credit unions, to ensure the safety and soundness of the credit unions and their compliance with applicable laws through yearly examinations and other means, and to fulfill supervisory responsibilities in an effective and professional manner.

DEPOSIT INSURANCE

Share accounts in federally insured credit unions are insured up to $250,000.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

OVERVIEW

In 2023, North Carolina state-chartered natural person credit unions showed positive results in many financial performance categories including growth in membership, assets, loans, and net worth. Membership modestly increased 2.53 percent from the previous year's levels, indicating confidence in credit unions as a safe and sound financial option. Total assets, loans, and net worth increased 6.45 percent, 12.22 percent, and 7.03 percent, respectively, while total shares and deposits decreased 4.31 percent during the same period. Although the interest rate environment is challenging, the credit union system remains stable.

The majority of state-chartered credit unions are profitable with an average Return on Average Assets of 0.74 percent. Net income in 2023 totaled $435,993,262, down from the $703,823,128 reported at year-end 2022. During the same period, total interest income increased 31.04 percent while total interest expense increased 257.58 percent. To maintain liquidity, credit unions paid higher rates for deposits and borrowed funds, resulting in elevated interest expenses. The Net Interest Margin to Average Asset ratio remained relatively stable at 2.71 percent.

Loans continue to comprise the majority of assets at 62.66 percent, increasing from 59.44 percent in 2022, and the demand for loans remains strong. Asset quality declined slightly during 2023, with delinquent loans representing 2.09 percent of total loans compared to 1.75 percent at year-end 2022. Reserves for loans increased 36.31 percent, totaling $477,599,196.

All North Carolina state-chartered credit unions are considered well-capitalized.

State-chartered credit unions continue to offer their members competitive products and services, including 435,024 loans granted for $11,247,105,514 in 2023. Additionally, state-chartered credit unions serve 3,280,332 members and employ 9,554 individuals.

The following pages detail the overall financial condition of state-chartered credit unions.
